Hi Diane!

Great to talk with you yesterday! We really appreciate your help with these questions and have all responses saved for future application rounds. :)

We need to finalize a few things that we couldn't get to yesterday during the committee meeting, but we will have the application summary with recommendations to you by Friday. Thanks for your patience with us as well! The first round always takes longer to orient everyone, but we will allot more time for these committee meetings in the future so that everything can be covered.

Have a great day!
